

European Steering Group on Sustainable Healthcare

Roundtable on “Disease prevention and early intervention”

Agenda

5 June 2014, 7:00pm – 10:15pm

Thon Hotel EU - Rue de la Loi/Wetstraat 75, B-1040 Brussels

7:00	Welcome cocktail
7:40	Welcome remarks, introduction to the Sustainable Healthcare initiative and objectives of this roundtable	Mary Harney , Chair of the ESG, Former Irish Health Minister
7:50	Introduction to the future ESG European White Paper on sustainable healthcare	Walter Ricciardi , Rapporteur of the ESG White Paper, President of the European Public Health Association
8:05 - 9:05	Introductory remarks
	Prevention and early intervention in the Member States: a national perspective	Daniel Bahr , Senior Fellow at American Progress, Former Federal Minister of Health for Germany
	The WHO role in fostering prevention and early intervention in Europe	Roberto Bertollini , WHO Chief Scientist and Representative to the EU
	What is the view of social insurers on disease prevention and early intervention and how can they concretely contribute to sustainable healthcare systems?	Marina Schmidt , Representative European Representation of the German Social insurers
	The perspective of public health stakeholders in disease prevention and early intervention and their role in ensuring sustainable healthcare systems	Norbert Lameire , Chairman European Chronic Disease Alliance
9:05 - 10:05	Open discussion between ESG Members, external speakers and national projects’ representatives
10:05 - 10:15	Closing remarks and conclusions	Chair

Dinner will be served throughout the course of the evening